

Cumbria Amenity Trust Mining History Society Newsletter No 91, May 2008.

Contents:

CAT News

New date for AGM & Dinner	Page 2
New members	Page 2
Journal 6	Page 2

News

Newland Furnace report.	Page 2
CIHS Spring Conference	Page 3
Safety of Cows Tails	Page 4
National database of mine plans	Page 4
Fire-setting	Page 4
Sebastian mine	Page 5
Destruction of Yarleside mine remains	Page 7
Secondary Copper deposits	Page 8
Collapse at Goldscope mine	Page 8
Mines Forum, 8 th Feb	Page 9
Illegal Digging on the Caldbeck Fells	Page 11
From our correspondant in China	Page 14

Meets and Activities

Forthcoming evening meets	Page 19
Some puzzles at Kernal Level	page 19
Rachel Wood mine	Page 20
Rotherhope Fell Mine	Page 20
An Exploration of Gudhamgill High Level.	Page 26
Bunton Level, Swaledale	Page 28
Raygill Level, Hawes	Page 28

Articles

Vielle Montagne	Page 29
The end of the ' Commerce '	Page 32
A Tentative Exploration of the North West Coast of South Island, New Zealand	Page 33

Minutes

16 th January 2008	Page 41
-------------------------------	---------

Society Officers and Committee Members

Back cover

Cover Picture

No, not an underground party; this is Dave Bridge in Kernal Level attempting to measure the height of the stopes by using a helium filled balloon attached to a fine line that is wound onto a fishing reel. The number of turns multiplied by 3.157 inches gives the height. (We think)